DE LESSEPS' DEFENSE

Summing Up in the Panama Trial Yesterday.

AN EARNEST AND ELOQUENT APPEAL

For the Owners of a Great Name as There is in France—Why Were Charges, Equally Damaging, Against Others, Ignored?

PARIS, March 17.—M. Harbou, counsel for Charles de Lesseps, summed up for his client in the Panama trial yesterday. He spoke at great length, always earnestly and often eloquently. At the beginning of the trial he said his case was so strong that he was willing to try it before a jury of Panama stockholders and yesterday he again expressed the conviction that he could secure Charles de Lesseps' acquittal. The courtroom was well filled when he began to speak and became crowded before he closed.

In opening his address M. Harbou said that the present trial had been begun by the wishes of stockholders, who had been misrepresented and in reality had been opposed to the arrangement in court of either Ferdinand or Charles de Lesseps. The stockholders had demanded the plan to place the burden of the Panama scandal upon men bearing a great name as there was in France. They resented and resisted in the Lesseps, and felt that the prosecution of him was not only unjust but a blow at the revival of the canal enterprise.

M. Harbou traced the history of the canal company after 1859, and the chambers of commerce in France, he said, had favored the completion of the canal after the work had been advanced to the point at which it was lagging before the last attempts to raise a loan. The whole commercial world that centered in Paris wished that the undertaking be completed. To complete it there was need of the lottery loan bill. To pass the bill there was a need of submitting to the demands of M. Baidut and others like him, who stood ready to tell the canals if they were not satisfied. The recalcitrant policy of the successive ministries were the first causes of scandal and the present trial was the result of the official policy of the last ministry. To pass the bill there was a need of submitting to the demands of M. Baidut and others like him, who stood ready to tell the canals if they were not satisfied. The recalcitrant policy of the successive ministries were the first causes of scandal and the present trial was the result of the official policy of the last ministry.

Charles fully as serious as those against de Lesseps had been made against a dozen other men, but they had been either ignored or excused and permitted to escape.

The presentation was bound to produce testimony connecting the accused with bribe and fraud. This it did with a full and complete display of the missing evidence, although not to the satisfaction of the prosecution, were Baron de Reinach, who was dead; Cornelius Herz, who was absent on account of illness; and Arton, the lobbyist, the pretended secret for whom had created the laughter of all Europe.

At the close of his address M. Harbou made a concluding testimony in this trial, but he was restrained from doing so. The ministers might have given the most vital information, but they were withheld. Why had they not produced copies of the telegram sent by Cornelius Herz?

The twenty General—they are at your disposal. Judge Desjardins—Let them be produced in court to-morrow.

Continuing M. Harbou asked why had Cornelius Herz been permitted to flee the country? Why had he not been named among the prisoners, or at least named among the accused? More than ten years he has been the broker of the railroad party. In this matter politics had deceived both their men and their millions. When he reveals the power of government they had taken the money they needed to defend their ideas and enrich their supporters. Whether this was called mendacity, smuggling or bribery mattered little. But who could believe that the initiative in these transactions came from the men who had to do with the paying instead of those who did the receiving?

The payments made to Baron de Reinach M. Harbou described as perfectly legitimate. They were given, he said, according to an agreement with the bankers constituting the guarantee syndicate. Who would believe that such large sums were intended for the insignificant deputies and senators whom the jury had just acquitted?

After the laughter following this star had subsided Judge Desjardins pleaded fatigue as an excuse for adjournment of court.

The Embargo Must be Maintained. London, March 17.—In answer to a question from the House of Commons, Mr. Chamberlain, president of the board of agriculture, said that the embargo upon Canadian cattle must be maintained until executive process of the absence of the disease from Canadian herds was obtained.

FROM HONOLULU.

The Friends of Annexation Depressed by the Asphyx of the United States.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 17.—The steamer Albatross arrived from Honolulu shortly after noon yesterday, bringing news from the latter place to March 9. With the exception of Minister Stevens and a few other Americans, the friends of annexation were considerably depressed when the steamer Albatross arrived at Honolulu on the 24, bringing the news that the treaty of annexation had not reached a vote in the United States senate. The royalists were correspondingly elated. Minister Stevens is of the opinion that a popular vote on the question of annexation taken in the islands would be useless. With the exception of the royal elements and a few interested persons of prominence, there is no strong feeling against annexation. President Dole says he has no reason to believe annexation will not come, even though it is deferred.

The present unsettled state of affairs has only manifested a had effect on commercial life in Honolulu but is strengthening the royalists in their opposition. A number of secret meetings have been held at which various measures for the bettering of their position have been discussed.

So far as known no threats of violence or of a resort to arms have been made, but it has been proposed that a presentation should be made to the English government in the apparent asphyx to the United States.

The Hawaiian league has been formed. It is said to be an anti-American organization made up of royalists and others, and contrived to delay annexation, and possibly prevent it altogether. Native do not take kindly to the league, and it is stated they propose to form new league of their own.

Judge Pease, of the city court, has been appointed to the position on the supreme court made vacant by the resignation by Sanford B. Dole, president of the Hawaiian league.

SERIOUS CHARGES.

A Leading Indiana State Senator Arrested.

UNDER THE STATE PATERNITY LAW.

The Action Believed by His Friends to be a Blackmailing Scheme—Damaging Facts Alleged by the Women's Friends.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., March 17.—State Senator Thomas H. Boyd, of Hamilton county, one of the best republicans in the legislature, was arrested at Noblesville yesterday on the complaint of Miss Ida May Davis, of this city, under the newly enacted paternity law. She was exempt from arrest during the discharge of his senatorial duties, and no steps were taken in the matter; but yesterday's developments show that a woman friend of the senator, Miss Davis, followed him to his home and has there caused his arrest. Miss Davis came from Westfield, this state, to this city, and the yellow flag is about 48 years old, prepossessing in appearance and very intelligent.

It is claimed by Boyd's friends that the charge against him is without foundation, and that he is to have the woman back once, and on that occasion she called on him to attend to some legal business for her. They believe it is a blackmailing scheme, and that the woman in the belief that Boyd will consent to be bled rather than combat a charge which might affect him so vitally.

On the other hand it is claimed that Boyd's relations with the woman were such as to give great semblance of truth to the charge, and that knowledge of these relations was used during the session to intimidate the senator from Hamilton, and prevent him from pushing an investigation into the affairs of the attorney-general's office.

Early in the session Boyd offered a resolution asking that certain rumors regarding fees collected under instructions of the attorney general be investigated. It is said that Boyd was asked not to press the matter further, but to let it drop, with the assurance that the attorney general's annual report to the governor would refer to the requirements of the resolution.

At the same time some of Boyd's personal friends were told that the democrats knew the relationship that he sustained with the woman, and that they would commit his personal interest by not again calling up his resolution. The resolution was not heard of after that, but Boyd's friends considered that the majority had treated him unfairly by threatening to expose personal relations in the senate.

The question of reorganization in the senate.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—Immediately after the senate adjourned yesterday the democratic members resumed their sitting and took up the matter of the reorganization of the elective officers of the senate.

It is said that the democrats are ready to report to the full senate early next week, possibly Tuesday morning. Whether the democrats intend to reorganize or not is an interesting question, but the republicans are taking up the question, that having the power, they intend to exercise it, and have been preparing a plan of their own.

It is said that a number of republican senators favor an organized opposition to any attempt to reorganize the elective officers at this time. It was said that the democrats had and have decided the matter, and have decided the democrats that such an attempt would be very distasteful to them.

The republicans will oppose such reorganization, the precedents of the body being against a reorganization at an extra session of the senate.

It is said that a number of the older and more conservative members of the party among the democrats are in favor of permitting things to remain as they are, and that the republicans of the joint house, whenever they may be, two prominent members of the "advising" committee are quoted as being opposed to reorganization at this time. It is said that a prolonged struggle between the two parties will be prevented if their advice is followed by the democratic caucus. Should the caucus, however, vote to take up the matter of reorganization, it seems to be quite certain that the struggle will be protracted and hotly contested.

The republicans have never been reorganized in this particular at a similar extraordinary session. The republicans attempted it in 1881, but the democrats were so strong that they defeated the attempt as soon as they learned that they were seeking to violate the precedents of the senate.

If the democrats, therefore, attempt to reorganize at this time, it is at least very certain that the republicans will show fight and prevent the consummation of the plan if it be within their power.

WEDDED IN DEATH.

Parental Opposition to the Union of Two Fond Hearts.

RESULTS IN MURDER AND SUICIDE.

A Milwaukee Couple Who Disappeared From Peace Christian, and Supposed to Have Run Away to Get Married, Found Dead.

PASS CHRISTIAN, Miss, March 17.—A most startling discovery was made here yesterday in the finding of the bodies of Miss Alice Nunnemacher, daughter of Mr. Herman Nunnemacher, a prominent merchant of Milwaukee, and William B. Miller, also of Milwaukee, both of whom had been shot through the head.

Miss Nunnemacher had been spending the winter here with her parents, and last week Mr. Miller, to whom she was engaged, arrived here. Her parents opposed the match, and on Friday afternoon after lunch she left the house and when night came on she did not return and Mr. Miller had also disappeared. It was supposed they had gone off to be married.

On Sunday the parents left, hoping to find their daughter in New Orleans. Yesterday afternoon a young boy found the bodies in a pine thicket on the north side of the railroad, about 200 yards from the depot. From the position in which they were lying the supposition is that the young man must have fired first at his company through the left temple and then shot himself behind the right ear, and death in both instances must have been instantaneous. The affair was evidently premeditated, as Mr. Miller had borrowed the pistol from one of the officers on that morning. The bodies were found by a boy, who had been playing in the thicket, and he had fired the fatal shot.

The news was telegraphed to the Nunnemachers' father, who is in Hot Springs. The bodies are now lying in Lange's undertaking parlors, awaiting interment.

Supervisor John H. Miller would not accept a re-nomination.

This is the season of the year when the agricultural and horticultural pessimist stands on the street corners, where he points out his gloomy forebodings about the crops while the sensible and practical farmer is planning his work to get into the fields at the first opportunity to lay the tribute of a good crop upon the soil, by good judgment and industry applied at the proper time.

WEARING O' THE GREEN.

St. Patrick Remembered in Decorative Services To-Night.

To-day is the feast day of St. Patrick, the patron saint of Ireland. The Irish and their descendants have, since the order of knighthood was conferred by George III. upon the patron saint, celebrated the day more or less elaborately. In many places the day is made the occasion of parades by societies and the churches generally hold special services in commemoration. It is claimed that St. Patrick was a native of Scotland, but however that may be, he went on his great mission of converting the heathen and founding churches in Ireland. In explaining the doctrine of the Trinity he planted a shamrock, and showed how these leaves might be counted and yet be one. From that day the shamrock was adopted as the national emblem of Ireland and it was always associated prominently with the day's celebration. St. Patrick is said to have charmed all the reptiles from the Emerald Isle so that they exist there no longer.

In Decorative services is being celebrated openly by the wearing of the green, and by services of appropriate character at the churches. There will be a lecture to-night at St. Patrick's church. As one of the Decorative hotels a dining room girl to-day wore a skirt of green and had green ribbons galors.

DR. CORMAN ROBBED.

A Burglar Goes Through His Wallowing and Escapes with His Booty.

The residence of Dr. O. F. Corman, the dentist, on West Main street, was entered last night by a burglar who enriched himself by stealing the Doctor's gold watch and $35 in cash.

The house was entered through the side door. This morning the key was found in the door near the front. The burglar probably passed in out from the outside, and then used a skeleton key to unlock the door. The watch was taken off a stand, and the money from the dentist's pockets. Two dollars of the cash was in all silver pieces of the coinage of 1883, in dollars and smaller pieces.

There were no tracks in the snow about the house or in the yard this morning. The robbery must have been committed between 12 and 1 o'clock this morning.

The Reception Last Night.
The rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association were crowded last evening on the occasion of the reopening of their headquarters. Sixteen years ago the association was organized at a meeting of young men held in the First M. E. church, and last night's gathering was a kind of celebration of that event. There was no program of exercises, but Maxwell's orchestra was present the entire evening and dispensed charming music. The program consisted of a general club was also present and rendered sweet strains. Light refreshments were served to all. The gymnasium was visited by the orchestra, who lingered to see the gymnastic performances of some of the boys. There were a good many things going on last night, but these pleasant receptions are always well attended.

Death of Mrs. Woodford.
Mrs. Sophia, wife of John Woodford, died last night at 9:30 o'clock, at her home on West Main street, of Bright's disease, aged 59 years and 8 months. The deceased leaves a husband and five children to survive her. Four children are dead. These living are Attorney William Woodford, J. W. Woodford, George Woodford, Oliver Woodford, and Mrs. Ed. Thompson. The deceased and her family have resided in Deatur for the past 18 years and lived in the large frame building on the hill to the west of the Millikin and Hill mansions on Pine street. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the A. M. E. church, Rev. T. T. Harvey officiating.

Death of Mrs. Henry Braun.
Mrs. Mary, the wife of Henry Braun, died yesterday afternoon at her home in Deatur at an advanced age. The deceased came to her death very suddenly. She had been ill for some time, but with the grip and a complication of diseases and was feeling somewhat better at the dinner hour. During the afternoon she was sitting in a large arm chair and without any warning fell to the floor dead. Her demise was sudden and painful. The deceased leaves a husband and five children to mourn her loss. The funeral services will be held Sunday morning at 9 o'clock at the residence. The remains will be brought to Deatur for burial.

U. B. Revival.
The interest in the meeting at the U. B. church last night surpassed that of any preceding evening. Mrs. Little sang two beautiful solos, the first, "I Must Be Baptized To-night," and the second, "Will It Pay?" Rev. Little selected as a basis for his sermon Heb. 3:15, "To-day, if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts." The discourse was plain, practical, and was made exceedingly forceful by the many happy illustrations introduced. There were four at the altar, and three pledged themselves. Meeting to-night at 7:30 o'clock. There will be services Saturday evening.

A Patriotic Address.
It is reported by a Grand Army comrade, who was at the encampment at Springfield yesterday and heard it, that the address made by Mrs. Elia Miller of Monticello, national inspector of the W. R. O., on the occasion of the visit to G. A. R. encampment of a committee from the encampment of the W. R. O., was the most inspiring and patriotic address he ever heard. He says the encampment sent up cheer after cheer as the beautiful words fell from her lips.

A Delightful Social.
There was a largely attended and successful social last night at the residence of I. A. Buckingham on West William street. It was given for the benefit of the missionary society, and quite a sum was cleared. Music was furnished by the mandolin quartet and refreshments were served.

Some Fine Oranges.
Henry Knicker is in receipt of a large box of fine Washington Navel oranges from his wife, who is visiting friends at Riverside, California. Mrs. Geo. Stone has also received a box of the same fruit. They are splendid oranges, large and juicy.

$23,000 IN INSURANCE

Amount Placed on the New Court House—Rooms Assigned.

$200 Rent Due from the City on Lease of the Fair Grounds—Resolutions.

This afternoon at the meeting of the board of supervisors the building committee reported that $15,000 insurance would be placed on the new court house, and $8,000 on the contents.

The same committee reported the assignment of rooms in the new building. State's Attorney Mills gave the two rooms on the ground floor in the northwest corner; County Surveyor Loring the first floor room in the northeast corner; Overseer Holmes the first room south of Loring's office. The rooms on the other floors are assigned as heretofore stated, except that Master-In-Chancery Finn will have a room on the third floor, near the circuit court room.

Supervisors Quinn and Dickson presented this report on the fair ground question:

That the county waives all claims in regard to the fair grounds, on account of the negligence of the city failing to pay the same, and suggest that the county clerk prepare a bill for the rent when due. Adopted.

The city owes the county $200 for rent in June.

The committee reported that the accounts of the superintendent of schools was correct. Value of services rendered, $382.

The committee on judiciary reported favorably on the proposition to furnish a separate seal for the county court.

The salaries of county officials amounting to $2125.84, including $800.18 for jail account and $200 for clerk hire for sheriff, ordered paid. Also other claims.

It was reported that county orders to three months, amounting to $22,111.53 had been destroyed.

Expenditures were read and ordered paid.

By resolution of Supervisor Quinn it was ordered that the county clerk collect the amount due from the county from the office and village for the election booths.

Superior Burley offered a motion, that a recess be taken to select grand jurors for June. Amended by Supervisor Cope, that the work be made a special order for 2 p. m. Carried.

Superior Cope offered a motion, that the matter of closing rooms in the court house be made at the adjourned meeting of the board. Lost. It was requested, by motion of Bean, that the report of the committee on assignment of rooms be made at the afternoon session.

The finance and salaries committee reported having examined the accounts of the state's attorney and found that during the two months examined, that official had received $2506.01, collected $2212.75, due the attorney, $118.95. The committee also reported examination of the county clerk's accounts, the county treasurer and sheriff; clerical errors mentioned had been corrected, making the office accounts straight. The report of the county superintendent showed notes and bonds in his hands to the amount of $16,409.51; cash on hand, $5.99.

On motion of Supr. Roberts it was agreed that when the board adjourns it be to Friday, March 31.

Superior Cope moved that when the new court house is finally accepted a public reception be given. The matter was left with the Public Building committee to make the necessary arrangements.

The jail report of Sheriff P. Furl was referred to the committee on fees and salaries. The bill was for $689.30; feeding prisoners, 1,523 days at 35 cents per day; turnkey's salary for three months $180; $40.75 for washing; and ninety-five blades for the jail.

It was agreed that the county treasurer be permitted to move into the new building at once if the contractor has no objections.

The chairman was authorized to at once give up the county lease on the old court room and county offices.

BLODGETT ELECTED.

Chosen G. A. R. Department Commander To-day at Springfield.

The real business sessions of the Grand Army encampment for Illinois were held to-day at Springfield.

Yesterday a dispatch was received from ex-President Harrison, dated Havana, Ill., as follows:

Edwin Harrison, Department Commander, G. A. R.
Thanks to my comrades for their kind invitation, but I am now in hunting much only, and could not make a visit of ceremony, some other time. The following reply was at once authorized:

General Benjamin Harrison, Havana.
The encampment has unanimously voted that you come as you are. They want to see you now. No other time will satisfy them.

STORY HARRIS.

Later another dispatch was received that Gen. Harrison was eleven miles up the river on a hunting trip, and asked if a messenger should be sent for him, and a peremptory "yes" returned.

The delegates to this national encampment at Indianapolis were chosen, Charles F. Webb, of Bloomington, being elected for the fourteenth district, and H. B. Smith, of East moun, as his alternate.

The vote on the location of the encampment for next year was very close. It was decided by a rising vote, only two competitors being presented—Rockford and Bloomington. The former won by a hair's breadth. On motion of a Bloomington comrade the selection of Rockford was made unanimous and the best of feeling prevailed all around. Several Rockford men said that they would favor Bloomington two years from now.

The other work of the day was of a routine character, except that Commander-in-Chief Wemmer, of Milwaukee, made an eloquent address, which was heartily applauded.

The vote on Commander yesterday was Major E. A. Blodgett, Chicago, 92; J. L. Bennett, Chicago, 179; Major R. M. Woods, 256. To-day Major Woods withdrew and Blodgett was elected.

THE WOMAN'S RELIEF CORPS.

The fourth annual convention of the Woman's Relief Corps met in the county chamber with 320 delegates in attendance. Several of the National officers were present, among them Mrs. Geo. Pike Sanders, National counselor, of Delevan, Ill. Several addresses were made, after which the several candidates were named for department offices, among them the following: Mrs. Salome Wilson, of Lincoln, for senior vice president; Mrs. Mrs. Maggie Sutton, of Deatur, Junior vice president; and Mrs. J. E. Baker, of Monticello; Mrs. Simpson, of Peoria, and Mrs. E. J. Rowler, of Springfield, as members of the executive board. Elsie R. Kennedy was elected a delegate at large to the National Encampment.

Congregational Services.

Rev. F. J. Broder at the Congregational church last night read the text found in Rev. 20:12 in speaking on the subject of "Memory's Indelible Record," because often when we send recollection into the depths of memory to reproduce something in the past, and fail to grasp that for which we searched, we think it that has transpired in our lives. But under certain conditions memory will reproduce those things that have been stamped there. Instances of people with wonderful memories and of those who under certain conditions had recalled what did not seem possible, helped to enforce the thought of the speaker. Our whole past will stand vividly before us when we stand before God at the judgment day. The thoughts given made a deep impression upon the audience. To-night, Rev. Broder will speak of "Remarkable Conversions."

The Deatur agency of the Glens Falls Insurance Company of New York has been transferred from Messrs. Patton & Co. to Frank P. Williams, with office at 232 North Water street. Mr. Williams has but recently opened up in the insurance business on his own account, and must be congratulated on securing such a company as the Glens Falls as a starter. This old company has cash assets of over two million dollars, with net surplus over all liabilities of $1,219,000. Mr. Williams has our congratulations, and we wish him every success.

Christian Endeavor Meeting.

Tomorrow the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor will hold a service at the First M. E. church, observing the sixth anniversary of the organization of the society. The hymns arranged for the occasion are Nos. 111, 105 and 113, with the responsive reading of the 22d Psalm. The program includes the doctrine, invocation by Dr. Parker, offering by the choir, "Six Years" by Miss Kate G. Allen; address, "The Sources of Our Highest Ideals" by Rev. T. I. Coulter of New Haven, Conn., former pastor of the church.

Settled by a Dog.

Bob Chatterbox, on Central avenue, was bitten the morning by a dog belonging to John Lane. This is the second time this has happened to Bob and he had determined that should it happen the second time he would kill the dog. As soon as he had fought off the dog this morning he went to his home and got his shotgun and hunted up the canine. He found him and sent him to the happy hunting ground well peppered with shot.

Geo. Wilson's Minstrels.

Wednesday evening, March 22, Wilson's Minstrels will be the attraction at the opera house. The St. Louis Republicians and:

George Wilson's Minstrels at Pope's were not neglected by patrons of Sunday performances. Their opening houses were very large, and the bill exceptionally good. The audience wonder writers are above the average of such performances, and the two small numbers of the Minstrels are adequate in their peculiar way. All the songs and gags are new, at least there are none of the old ones there that the audience would like to miss. The music of this company is very strong in its vocal department.

DE LESSEPS' DEFENSE

Summing Up in the Panama Trial Yesterday.

AN EARNST AND ELOQUENT APPEAL

For the Bearers of a Great Name as There is in France—Why Were Charges, Equally Damaging, Against Others, Ignored?

PARIS, March 17.—M. Barbois, counsel for Charles de Lesseps, summed up for his client in the Panama trial yesterday. He spoke at great length, always earnestly and often eloquently. At the beginning of the trial he said his case was so strong that he was willing to try before a jury of Panama stockholders, and yesterday he again expressed the conviction that he could secure Charles de Lesseps' acquittal. The courtroom was well filled when he began to speak and became crowded before he closed.

In opening his address M. Barbois said that the present trial had been begun by the wishes of stockholders, who had been misrepresented and in reality had been opposed to the arrangement in court of other Frenchmen, or Charles de Lesseps. The stockholders had disapproved of the plan to place the burden of the Panama scandal upon men bearing as great a name as there was in France. They respected and trusted in De Lesseps, and felt that the prosecution of him was not only unjust but a blow at the revival of the canal enterprise.

M. Barbois traced the history of the canal company after 1888. All the chambers of commerce in France, he said, had favored the completion of the canal after the work had been advanced to the point at which it was lagging before the onset of the Panama scandal. The whole commercial world that centered in Paris wished that the undertaking be completed. To complete it there was need of the lottery loan bill. To pass the bill there was a need of submitting it to the Chamber of Deputies. M. Barbois said that he was ready to kill the measure if they were not conciliated. The vacillating policies of the successive ministries were the first causes of scandal and the present one, M. Barbois said, had realized his official power over the fate of the lottery bill, and had known that De Lesseps' failure to comply with his demands could be made to accomplish the ruin of the canal company. After he had informed De Lesseps that if he could not receive an enormous sum of money he would defeat the bill, M. Barbois said that he had informed De Lesseps that if he could not receive an enormous sum of money he would defeat the bill.

The charges that M. de Lesseps had wished to corrupt everybody and had searched Paris for men upon whom he could lavish the money of the shareholders, had not been proven. Why had Charles de Lesseps been accused to bear the brunt of charges of bribery when others knew to be guilty that had made a bargain with M. de Lesseps, to clove with Miss Ella Gathers, of Franklin, O., is in Honolulu, being employed by a mercantile firm.

FROM HONOLULU.

The Friends of Annexation Depressed by the Apathy of the United States.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 17.—The steamer Albatross arrived from Sydney via Honolulu shortly after noon yesterday, bringing news that the treaty of annexation had not reached a vote in the United States senate. The royalists were correspondingly elated. Minister Stevens is of the opinion that a popular vote on the question of annexation taken in the islands would be useless. With the exception of the royal elements and a few interested persons of prominence, there is no strong feeling against annexation. President Dole says he has no reason to believe annexation will not come, even though it be deferred.

The present unsettled state of affairs has not only manifested a had effect on commercial lines in Honolulu but is strengthening the royalists in their opposition. A number of secret meetings have been held at which various measures for the bettering of their position have been discussed.

So far as known no threats of violence or of a resort to arms have been made, but it has been proposed that the presentation should be made to the English government in the apparent apathy to the United States.

The Hawaiian civil rights league has been formed. It is said to be an anti-American organization made up of royalists and others, and contrived to delay annexation, and if possible, prevent it altogether. Natives do not seem kindly to the league, and it is stated they propose to form new league of their own.

Judge Ewing, of the city court, has been appointed to the position on the supreme court made vacant by the resignation by Sanford D. Dole, president of the provisional government. The retention in office of A. S. Cleburne, father of the present president, caused dissatisfaction among some of the supporters of the government.

Minister Jones, of the finance department, has announced that the total debt of the government is $3,200,000.

SERIOUS CHARGES.

A Leading Indiana State Senator Arrested.

UNDER THE STATE PATERNITY LAW.

The Action Believed by His Friends to be a Blackmailing Scheme—Damaging Facts Alleged by the Woman's Friends.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., March 17.—State Senator Thomas H. Boyd, of Hamilton county, one of the best republican members of the legislature in the last two sessions, was arrested at Noblesville yesterday on the complaint of Miss Ida May Davis, of this city, under the paternity statute. Under the law he was exempt from arrest during the discharge of his senatorial duties, and no steps were taken in the matter; but yesterday's developments show that a former threat was not an idle one, as Miss Davis followed him to his home and has there caused his arrest. Miss Davis came from Westfield, this state, to this city, several years ago. She is about 40 years old, prepossessing in appearance, and is a native of Indiana.

It is claimed by Boyd's friends that the charge against him is without foundation, and he is said to have met the woman but once, and on that occasion she asked him to marry her. He refused, and she has since been living with a man named John Hamilton, and prevent him from publishing an investigation into the affairs of the attorney-general's office.

Early in the session Boyd offered a resolution asking that certain rumors regarding fees collected under instructions of the attorney general be investigated. It is said that Boyd was asked not to press the matter further, but to let it drop, with the assurance that if he did not his annual report to the governor would contain the requirements of the resolution.

At the same time some of Boyd's personal friends were told that the democrats knew the relationship that he sustained with the woman, and that they would consult his personal interest by not again calling up his resolution. The resolution was not heard of afterward, but Boyd's friends complained that the majority had treated him unfairly by refusing to expose personal relations in the senate.

The question of reorganization in the senate.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—Immediately after the senate adjourned yesterday the democratic caucus committee resumed its sitting and took up the matter of the reorganization of the senate.

It is said that the committee will be ready to report to the full caucus early next week, possibly Tuesday morning. Whether the democrats intend to reorganize or not is an interesting question, but the republicans are not without their own plans.

"How about the confirmation of Robert E. Maxwell and Edward B. Whitney?"

"The New York senators will do nothing to delay their confirmation. On the contrary, they will aid in having them confirmed."

The St. Louis Browns Defeated. MEMPHIS, Tenn., March 17.—The Memphis league team defeated the St. Louis Browns yesterday afternoon by a score of 7 to 3. Wittrock pitched for Memphis, allowing the Browns five hits, Clarkson, Hawley and Breitenstein pitched three innings each for the Browns, and eight men hit for Memphis. The game was played in a flurry of snow, a cold wave having struck Memphis yesterday.

The Funeral of Luke Schoolcraft. BOSTON, March 17.—The funeral of Luke Schoolcraft, actor and minstrel, was held yesterday from the Church of the Advent, under the direction of the Boston lodge of Elks. The interment was at Cedar Grove cemetery.

The Act of a Small Man.

The stories published just after Gresham's selection for secretary of state of his implacableness and foolish resentment in which, on several occasions, when sitting as a judge, and the prisoner, who after having been sentenced by him, made some side remark by way of dissatisfaction, was called back and his sentence increased, were not creditable to Gresham. But now we are shown the small caliber of the man as much as his recent conduct toward Consul New. New is an Indian who has been against Gresham, and took a prominent part against him and in favor of Harrison in the Republican convention in 1888. When Harrison became president he appointed New to the London consulate. Since Cleveland's inauguration and Gresham's appointment as secretary of state, Mr. New, as is customary, forwarded his resignation to take effect May 1, 1893. This period was allowed by Consul New as a matter of courtesy to the new administration, so about that length of time would be necessary to properly accredit his successor and for the new consul to reach London. But when the resignation reached Gresham, instead of receiving it in the spirit in which it was sent, made it a pretext to offer Consul New an insult and called him as follows: "Your resignation is not only expected but demanded at once."

The people will be surprised to know that Gresham is developing into a small man, which must necessarily lose him the respect of a large number of men of all political parties. As an officer of the government he is barred as a gentleman

THE Democrats of Wheatland township met at the station last night and nominated Charles Boardman for supervisor; Frank Ward for clerk; Albert Martin for assessor; William Martin for collector; Frank Browning for commissioner; John Russell for justice; William Miller for constable. Supervisor John H. Miller would not accept a re-nomination.

THIS is the season of the year when the agricultural and horticultural pessimist stands on the street corners, where he pours out his gloomy forebodings about the crops, while the sensible and provident farmer is planning his way to get into the fields at the first opportunity to lay the tribute of a good crop upon the soil, by good judgment and industry applied at the proper time.

WEARING O' THE GREEN.

St. Patrick Remembered in Deatur—Services 10-Night.

To-day is the feast day of St. Patrick, the patron saint of Ireland. The Irish and their descendants have, since the order of knighthood was conferred by George III. upon the patron saint, celebrated the day more or less elaborately. In many places the day is made the occasion of parades by societies and the churches generally hold special services in commemoration. It is claimed that St. Patrick was a native of Scotland, but however that may be, he went on his great mission of converting the heathen and founding churches in Ireland. In explaining the doctrine of the Trinity he plucked a shamrock and showed how three leaves might be united and yet be one. From that day the shamrock was adopted as the national emblem of Ireland and it was always associated prominently with the day's celebration. St. Patrick is said to have charmed all the reptiles from the Emerald Isle so that they exist there no longer.

In Deatur the anniversary is being celebrated openly by the wearing of the green, and by services of appropriate character at the churches. There will be a lecture to-night at St. Patrick's church. At one of the Deatur hotels a dining room girl to-day wore a skirt of green and had green ribbons galore.

DR. CORMAN ROBBED.

A Burglar Goes Through His L. Welling and Escapes with His Booty.

The residence of Dr. O. F. Corman, the dentist, on West Main street, was entered last night by a burglar who enriched himself by stealing the Doctor's gold watch and $35 in cash.

The house was entered through the side door. This morning the key was found in the room lying on the floor near the door. The burglar probably pushed it out from the outside, and then used a skeleton key to unlock the door. The watch was taken off a stand, and the money from the dentist's pockets. Two dollars of the cash was all in silver pieces of the coinage of 1893, in dollars and smaller pieces.

There were no tracks in the snow about the house or in the yard this morning. The robbery must have been committed between 12 and 1 o'clock this morning.

The Reception Last Night.

The rooms of the Young Men's Christian Association were crowded last evening on the occasion of the reopening of their headquarters. Sixteen years ago the association was organized at a meeting of young men held in the First M. E. church, and last night's gathering was a kind of celebration of that event. There was no program of exercises, but Maxwell's orchestra was present the entire evening and dispensed charming music. The Orchestral mandolin and guitar club was also present and rendered sweet strains. Light refreshments were served to the callers, who lingered to see the gymnastic performances of some of the boys. There were a good many things going on last night, but these pleasant receptions are always well attended.

Death of Mrs. Woodford.

Mrs. Sophia, wife of John Woodford, died last night at 9:30 o'clock, at her home on West Main street, of Bright's disease, aged 53 years and 6 months. The deceased leaves a husband and five children to survive her. Four children are dead. Those living are Attorney Wilson Woodford, J. W. Woodford, George Woodford, Giles Woodford, and Mrs. Ed Thompson. The deceased and her family have resided in Deatur for the past 18 years and lived in the west frame building on the hill to the west of the Millikin and Hill mansions on Pine street. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from the A. M. E. church, Rev. F. T. Harvey officiating.

Death of Mrs. Henry Bruaw.

Mrs. Mary, the wife of Henry Bruaw died yesterday afternoon at her home on Cedar street at an advanced age. The deceased came to her death very suddenly. She had been ill for some time past with the grip and a complication of diseases and was feeling somewhat better at the dinner hour. During the afternoon she was sitting in a large arm chair and without any warning fell to the floor dead. Her demise was sudden and painless. The deceased leaves a husband and five children to mourn her loss. The funeral services will be held Sunday morning at 9 o'clock at the residence. The remains will be brought to Deatur for burial.

U. B. Revival.

The interest in the meeting at the U. B. church last night surpassed that of any preceding evening. Mrs. Little sang two beautiful solos, the first, "I Must Be Settled To-night," and the second, "Will It Pay." Rev. Little selected as a basis for his sermon Heb. 3:15, "To-day, ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts." The discourse was plain, practical, and was made exceedingly forceful by the many happy illustrations introduced. There were four at the altar, and three professed conversion. Meeting to-night at 7:30 o'clock. There will be services Saturday evening.

A Patriotic Address.

It is reported by a Grand Army comrade, who was at the encampment at Springfield yesterday and heard it, that the address made by Mrs. F. Miller of Monticello, national inspector of the W. R. C., on the occasion of the visit to G. A. R. encampment of a committee from the encampment of the W. R. C., was the most inspiring and patriotic address he ever heard. He says the encampment sent up cheers after cheers as the beautiful words fell from her lips.

A Delightful Social.

There was a largely attended and successful social last night at the residence of I. A. Buckingham on West Main street. It was given for the benefit of the missionary society, and quite a sum was cleared. Music was furnished by the mandolin quartet and refreshments were served.

Some Fine Oranges.

Henry Kreidler is in receipt of a large box of fine Washington Naval oranges from his wife, who is visiting friends at Riverside, California. Mrs. Geo. Stare has also received a box of the same fruit. They are splendid oranges, large and juicy.

$23,000 IN INSURANCE

Amount Placed On the New Court House—Rooms Assigned.

$200 Rent Due from the City on Lease of the Fair Grounds—Resolutions.

This afternoon at the meeting of the board of supervisors the building committee reported that $15,000 insurance would be placed on the new court house, and $8,000 on the contents.

The same committee reported the assignment of rooms in the new building. State's Attorney Mills gets the two rooms on the ground floor in the northwest corner; County Surveyor Loring the first floor room in the northeast corner; Overseer Holman the first room south of Loring's office. The rooms on the other floors are assigned as heretofore stated, except that Master-in-Chancery Finn will have a room on the third floor, near the circuit court room.

Superior Quinn and Dickson presented this report on the fair ground question:

That the county waives all claims in regard to the fair grounds, on account of the negligence of the city failing to pay the same when due, and suggest that the county clerk present a bill for the rent when due. Adopted.

The city owes the county $200 for rent in June.

The committee reported that the accounts of the superintendent of schools were correct. Value of services rendered, $382.

The committee on judiciary reported favorably on the proposition to furnish a separate seal for the county court.

The salaries of county officials amounting to $2125.84, including $308.18 for jail account and $200 for clerk hire for sheriff, ordered paid. Also other claims. It was reported that county orders to three months, amounting to $22,111.63 had been destroyed.

Paper claims were read and ordered paid.

By resolution of Supervisor Quinn it was ordered that the county clerk collect the amount due the county from the cities and villages for the election booths.

Supervisor Burley offered a motion, that a recess be taken to select grand jurors for June. Amended by Supervisor Cope, that the work be made a special order for 2 p. m. Carried.

Supervisor Nowlin offered a motion, that the matter of assigning rooms in the court house by made at the adjourned meeting of the board. Lost. It was requested, by motion of Bean, that the report of the committee on assignment of rooms be made at the afternoon session.

The fees and salaries committee reported having examined the accounts of the state's attorney and found that during the nine months examined, that official had earned $2306.01, collected $2221.56; due the attorney, $143.96. The committee also reported examination of the county clerk's accounts, the county treasurer and sheriff; clerical errors mentioned had been corrected, making the report of the county superintendent showed notes and bonds in his hands to the amount of $16,409.51; cash on hand, $5.09.

On motion of Supr. Roberts it was agreed that when the board adjourns it be to Friday, March 31.

Supervisor Cope moved that when the new court house is finally accepted a public reception be given. The matter was left with the Public Building committee to make the necessary arrangements.

The jail report of Sheriff P. Parl was referred to the committee on fees and salaries. The bill was for $639.80; feeding prisoners 1,223 days at 35 cents per day; turnkey's salary for three months $120; $87.37 for washing; and ninety-five blankets furnished.

It was agreed that the county treasurer be permitted to move into the new building at once if the contractor has no objections.

The chairman was authorized to at once give up the county lease on the old court room and county offices.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Bloom, of East St. Louis, on Tuesday, March 16, a son. Mr. and Mrs. Bloom were formerly residents of Deatur, the father being at that time an engineer on the St. Louis division of the Wabash.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Thompson, who have located in Chicago, were given a farewell reception at their old home in Galeburg the other night. An interesting musical program was observed and refreshments were served. B. T. is a daughter of Aid. and Mrs. John Williams of this city.

BUDGET ELECTED.

Chosen G. A. R. Department Commander To-day at Springfield.

The real business sessions of the Grand Army encampment for Illinois were held to-day at Springfield.

Yesterday a dispatch was received from ex-President Harrison, dated Havana, Ill., as follows:

Edwin Harlan, Department Commander, G. A. R.

Thanks to my comrades for their kind invitation, but I am here in Havana and can't come to make a visit of ceremony. Some other time.

BENJAMIN HARRISON.

The following reply was at once authorized:

General Benjamin Harrison, Havana.

The encampment was unanimously voted that you come as you are. They want to see you now. No other time will satisfy them.

EDWIN HARLAN.

Later another dispatch was received that Gen. Harrison was eleven miles up the river on a hunting trip, and asked if a messenger should be sent for him, and a peremptory "yes" returned.

The delegates to the national encampment at Indianapolis were chosen, Charles F. Webb, of Bloomington, being elected for the Fourteenth district, and H. H. Saint, of East country, as his alternate.

The vote on the location of the encampment for next year was very close. It was decided by a rising vote, only two competitors being presented—Rockford and Bloomington. The former won by a hair's breadth. On motion of a Bloomington comrade the selection of Rockford was made unanimous and the best of feeling prevailed all around. Several Rockford men said that they would favor Bloomington two years from now.

The other work of the day was of a routine character, except that Commander-in-Chief Weissert, of Milwaukee, made an eloquent address, which was heartily applauded.

The vote on Commander yesterday was Major E. A. Blodgett, Chicago, 321; J. L. Bennett, Chicago, 178; Major R. M. Woods, 255. To-day Major Woods withdrew and Blodgett was elected.

THE WOMAN'S RELIEF CORPS.

The tenth annual convention of the Woman's Relief Corps met in the senate chamber with 320 delegates in attendance.

Several of the National officers were present, among them Mrs. Sue Pike Sanders, National counselor, of Delevan, Ill. Several addresses were made, after which the several candidates were named for department offices, among them the following: Mrs. Salome Wilson, of Lincoln, for senior vice president; Mrs. Mrs. Maggie Sutton, of Deatur, junior vice-president; and Inez J. Bender, of Monticello; Mrs. Simpson, of Peoria, and Mrs. E. J. Rowley, of Springfield, as members of the executive board. Effie E. Kennedy was elected a delegate at large to the National Encampment.

Congregational Services.

Rev. F. J. Brobst at the Congregational church last night used the text found in Rev. 20:12 in speaking on the subject of "Memory's Indelible Record," because often when we send recollection into the depths of memory to reproduce something in the past, and fail to grasp that for which we searched, we think it will be impossible for us ever to recall all that has transpired in our lives. But under certain conditions memory will reproduce those things that have been stamped there. Instances of people with wonderful memories and of those who under certain conditions had recalled what did not seem possible, helped to enforce the thought of the speaker. Our whole past will stand vividly before us when we stand before God at the judgment day. The thoughts given made a deep impression upon the audience. To-night Rev. Brobst will speak of "Remarkable Conversions."

Announcement.

The Deatur agency of the Glens Falls Insurance Company of New York has been transferred from Rapp, Simpson & Co. to Frank P. Williams, with office at 322 North Water street. Mr. Williams has but recently opened up in the insurance business on his own account, and must be congratulated on securing such a company as the Glens Falls as a starter. This old company has cash assets of over two million dollars, with a net surplus over all liabilities of $1,219,000. Mr. Williams has our congratulations, and we wish him every success.

Christian Endeavor Meeting.

To-night the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor will hold a service at the First M. E. church, observing the sixth anniversary of the organization of the society. The hymns arranged for the occasion are Nos. 111, 105 and 110, with the responsive reading of the 23d Psalm. The program includes the doctrine, invocation, by Dr. Parker, anthem by the choir, "Six Years" by Miss Kate G. Aikin; address, "The Sources of Our Highest Ideals" by Rev. T. I. Coulton of Terre Haute, Ind., former pastor of the church.

Bitten by a Dog.

Bob Chronister, residing on Central avenue, was bitten this morning by a dog belonging to John Lane. This is the second time this has happened to Bob and he had determined that should it happen the second time he would kill the dog. As soon as he had fought off the dog this morning he went to his home and got his shot-gun and hunted up the canine. He found him and sent him to the happy hunting ground well peppered with shot.

Postponed.

The following dispatch explains itself: JACKSONVILLE, March 16, '09.

Rev. T. A. Parker, pastor First M. E. Church, Deatur, has been called to leave for another week.

Don't Miss It.

If you do you will be a loser, for you can get Cut Glass at a price lower, for you cannot afford to miss at E. D. Bartholomew's.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Guy R. Stanley, of St. Louis, on March 15, a son of unusual weight. Mrs. Stanley was formerly Miss Lila Hays of this city.

AN EXPLANATION

SOME of our customers have failed to understand fully the import of the tremendous reductions we have made on the C. F. Ford & Co. Ladies' Fine Shoes. These shoes are as good as any made in the country. We have 3,000 pairs of them and will not handle them after the present stock is exhausted. These shoes which have retained regular the world over for $3.50 and $4.00, have cost $2.75, but we now sell them at $2.25. Shoes of the same manufacture, machine sewed, which retained regular at $3.00 and which job everywhere for $2.25, we are now selling at $1.75.

DO YOU ASK WHY?

Not that there is anything the matter with the shoes for there is nothing wrong with them. The only reason is that we intend to go out of this line altogether and we propose to make prices that will sell them. No lady in Deatur and no lady in the surrounding towns can afford to let this opportunity slip. They can never again buy shoes at such tremendous reduction and of such uniform good quality, and in every size and width that may be desired. Remember there are 3,000 pairs only and we want to sell as large a number of pairs as possible through our Deatur house because we want to give a benefit to all those who were our patrons in the days before we became wholesalers in Chicago.

DON'T LET THEM BEAR FALSE WITNESS.

It is probably true that every rival shoe dealer in Deatur will have something to say against these shoes now that they cannot meet the prices. It is probably true that every shoe dealer in Deatur may have something to say about the style of our advertising. What do you care? It is the goods at the prices for which you are looking and that is precisely what we are giving you.

THIS SALE TO CONTINUE TILL APRIL 1.

We have so many goods that this sale will continue to April 1. We continue our low price sale on everything in our store. We ask you to note that in some things there are substantial reductions from any prices heretofore made, for instance, Burt & Meers shoes at $1.75 per pair.

+MEN'S SHOES+

Men's calf shoes, Goodyear last, sewed, retail regular at $3.50 and $4.00, cost $2.25 we will sell you one pair or as many pairs as you want at $2.25.

Men's calf shoes, which retail at $3.00, cost $2 and $2.25; we will give you one pair or as many as you like at $1.75 per pair.

From the above you have noticed that on goods which we must close out before spring we are actually taking a loss on the retailer's cost price. We wish we could tell you this fact in a way that you would appreciate it to the extent of buying for future use if you have at present all the shoes which you need.

We continue our unheard of low prices on the James A. Banister and Burt & Meers' Shoes. We want you to buy shoes this month.
